OPEN BIDS FOR
MODERN WHARF
AT KAMEHAMEHAHawaiian Dredging Company Is Lowest of Three Bidding FirmsThe Hawaiian Dredging Company was lowest of three bidders today when tenders were opened at the construction quartermaster's office for the big concrete wharf at Fort Kameheha. Bids were as follows:Hawaiian Dredging Company, $21-923, in 120 working days; Lord-Young Engineering Company, $27,834, in 180 working days; J. L. Young, $30,000, in 280 days. The Hawaiian Dredging Company is thus lowest in both time and money offers.The new wharf is to be large enough and will extend far enough out to allow mine planters to come alongside and take on or discharge cargo.
It will be modern in every detail, of reinforced concrete and 200 by 20 feet in dimensions. In addition to this there will be a retaining wall constructed 720 feet in length, and lined on the sea side with concrete.Concrete piles with wooden centers 10 feet apart will hold up the wharf, and these will be driven down deep enough into the mud to form a solid foundation.As a result of puncturing his thumb with an instrument he was using in filling a patient's tooth, Dr. Frank Timmerman, of Chicago, died of blood poisoning.Former Premier Venizelos has been elected a member of the Greek Chamber of Deputies.A new treaty of alliance has been

BOARD APPOINTS
SUMMER SCHOOL
TEACHING STAFFCyril O. Smith is Selected as Director; Institution Will Open Early in JulyAfter two days of strenuous work the territorial school commissioners closed their annual meeting yesterday afternoon by appointing the faculty for the 1916 summer school, which will begin early in July.The summer school faculty will consist of the following teachers:Shop, E. Allan Creevey; domestic science, Mrs. J. N. Otrembat; agriculture, G. W. Sahr; mathematics, J. A.
Wilson; history, Miss Clara Stevenson; hygiene, Miss E. Frances McCredy; drawing and story work, Mrs. Lilla H. Marshall; methods, T. H. Gibson.
The instructors in geography and English probably will be appointed tomorrow by Henry W. Kinney.Thirty-seven additional teachers have been added to the staff of the department. One of the busiest items of business at the annual meeting was the appointment of teachers for the coming school year. Superintendent Kinney tomorrow expects to make public hall of the Oahu list of teachers, the list of Kauai teachers and a portion of the Hawaii list.GETS THREE MONTHS FOR BEATING GIRLBrutality of the basest sort was the charge made by the prosecution in police court today against D. Sabas, a Filipino, who was given three months for beating Romano Rodriguez, a Porto Rican girl."He beat her up about as bad five months ago," said Chillingworth to the judge, "and then threatened to kill her if she complained to the police."

TOLD IN LECTUREA large audience listened with interest as Evangelist McCord spoke last night on the subject of "Divine Healing." The evangelist said in part:"Physical healing may or may not be divine healing.
"There is another class of patients whose illness is purely imaginary.
Many of these people claim to have been healed when in reality they have not been ill. All these people need to do is to grasp the fact that they are well; so-called miracles of healing have thus been accomplished."Notwithstanding these bogus affairs, there is such a thing as divine healing, and this healing is based on the scripture found in James 5:14, 15.
When these conditions have been followed and men have agreed to the conditions of God's word—that we are to say, 'Thy will be done,' healing has always followed."The Seventh-day Adventist church believes in divine healing. I could speak of instances where patients have been cured from consumption." The lecture for tonight will be, "The Road to Wellville." An intensely interesting health lecture will be given by the trained nurses, as well as a practical demonstration of hydrotherapy.VESSELS TO AND
